

MATERIALS BOARD SIDELL GIBSON ARCHITECTS

|     | ITEM                                                                                                                                       | DETAILS                                                                                                                   |
|-----|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 01. | Back-painted glass by Komfort Workspace.www.komfort.com                                    | Integrated part of the atrium glazing system. Used as courtesy banding and structure zone screening                       |
| 02. | Urbatek Nature ceramic tile by Porcelanosa.www.porcelanosa.co.uk                     | Hardwearing floor tile to match overall interior scheme                                                                   |
| 03. | Linen-finish stainless steel by ThyssenKrupp.www.thyssenkrupp.com                     | Used on the goods lift interior. Chosen for its durable, textured finish                                                  |
| 04. | Glazing by Komfort Workspace                                                                                                        | Expertise in bolt-fixed glazing assemblies allowed fully glass bays                                                       |
| 05. | Steel fin and brackets by Komfort Workspace                                                                                         | Prefinished structural support within visual zone of glass bays                                                           |
| 06. | Reconstituted stone cladding by Creagh Concrete Products. www.creaghconcrete.com        | Formed as part of the external envelope to form the curved building profile and to match the colour of the Portland stone |
| 07. | Polished Nero Assoluto black granite by Swift Southern. www.swift-southern.co.uk      | Used on the reception desk top. Classic hardwearing, practical work surface                                               |
| 08. | Burgundy lacquered MDF by Swift Southern                                                                                            | Provides highly reflective surface and colour against the neutral backdrop                                                |
| 09. | Portland stone cladding by Albion Stone.www.albionstonequarries.com            | The stone was selected to match the extension to the adjacent Central Criminal Court and other buildings in the locality  |
| 10. | Flamed black granite by Granite and Marble Services. www.granite-marble-ltd.co.uk | Used on the plinths and entrance paving. Contrasting material forms a solid base to the building and a defined entrance   |
| 11. | Render by K Rend. www.k-rend.co.uk                                                            | Alternative to stone. Maintains colour palette and reflects light into terraces                                           |
| 12. | Toughened glass balustrade with steel handrail by Delta Fabrications. Tel. 01480 861154                                             | Continues theme of atrium transparency and allows light into the offices                                                  |
| 13. | Limestone by Granite and Marble Services                                                                                            | Used on the reception flooring to maintain the palette of materials                                                       |
| 14. | Lift architrave by Delta Fabrications                                                                                               | Steel creates a feature entrance to the lifts and entrance lobby finishes                                                 |
| 15. | Powder-coated aluminium by Komfort Workspace                                                                                        | Forms a neutral background to recessed glazing assemblies                                                                 |
| 16. | Powder-coated aluminium by Delta                                                                                                    | To screen upper level plant areas and complement the stone/precast panel                                                  |
| 17. | Motif from presentation board                                                                                                       | Illustrated how the materials palette allows for easy customisation of space                                              |
| 18. | Generic climbing plants                                                                                                             | For the green wall to the rear of the elevation                                                                           |

READER ENQUIRIES

Enter 1400 on your reader enquiry card to receive information on all the manufacturers in this piece. For individual products, use the prefix 14 followed by the item number: for example, 1401. Enquire online at WWW.ARCHITECTSJOURNAL.CO.UK